

OCTANE CAPITAL

Investment Analyst / Intern at Distressed Debt and Special Situations

Position

Octane Capital is looking for an intern / visiting analyst for its Cologne or Munich office. Octane Capital is a hedge fund with a mandate to invest in distressed debt and special situations. A successful candidate will get unique insights particularly into German credit opportunity market

Overview

- » Min. 3-month internship, followed by a potential hire
- » Support in identification and analysis of distressed debt investment ideas
- » On-the-desk training on distressed corporate and real estate valuation and modeling
- » Learn to structure a distressed deal
- » Compensation to be negotiated

Qualifications

- » Outstanding academic track record in finance, business administration, mathematics, law, business informatics or economics
- » Keen interest in corporate finance, fixed income and value investing, as well as markets and macroeconomics
- » Ideally previous experience in corporate finance / M&A / leverage finance / private equity / derivatives
- » Fluency in German and English is essential
- » You should be well-read, entrepreneurial, hardworking and sociable, and demonstrate drive and innovation
- » The key qualities are team work, leadership, creativity and problem solving, as well as an ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- » Ability to grasp a wide variety of products, multitasking and efficient communication skills are essential

Contact Information

Please send your application, including CV, cover letter and references, to the following email:

info@octane-capital.de

In case of any questions, please do not hesitate to call us directly at +49 221 84 61 45 30